AAFDA Position Statement on Payments to Family Speakers

AAFDA has always valued and held in high regard the personal testimonies of the families and friends who use our service.

We appreciate the time and emotional sacrifice that families make when they speak as guests at AAFDA events, training courses and webinars.

We believe that families and friends bereaved by fatal domestic abuse are experts in their own bereavement and we are firm in our belief that families and friends should hold the same status as professionals who speak publicly about domestic abuse and fatal domestic abuse.

We undertake to paying all of our family and friend guest speakers an appropriate rate which reflects their knowledge and emotional labour.

These rates will be reviewed annually each April.

End.
